15A Herne Hill Quarry retained as an emergency water source

15B Rehabilitation of the upper benches of the Herne Hill Quarry

15E Dams in the base of the Herne Hill Pit

15C Old stockpile area at Herne Hill to be restored as ecological corridor

15D Old Herne Hill site to be restored as ecological corridor, with the roads retained for access and emergency

15F View of the old Herne Hill site from Campersic Road

Hanson HEIDELBERGCEMENTGroup

HERNE HILL QUARRY

December 2013

FIGURE 15

16A Construction of the primary crusher surge stockpile facility

16B Six month old rehabilitation on overburden removed from the upgrades to the crushing operations

16C The only location where the stockpiles are visible is a small section of Toodyay Road at Red Hill.

16D Trees planted around the stockpile areas

16E Trees planting on the bank facing Toodyay Road that supports the stockpile areas

Hanson HEIDELBERGCEMENTGroup

RED HILL QUARRY

December 2013

CRUSHING AND STOCKPILE MANAGEMENT FIGURE 16

Rehabilitation of the southern face

Potentially move the powerline

Excavation from behind the face

Tree planted buffers and bunds

Staged excavation

Progressive revegetation of the western face

Existing trees

Staged excavation

Excavation from behind the face

Additional tree planting where possible

Potentially move the powerline

Upgrade the rehabilitation on the Herne Hill site

N

Aerial photography NEARMAP

West Quarry Extension Area A

New stockpile area

Lot 11 boundary

Powerline

Herne Hill Rehabilitation Area

Additional tree planting where possible

Hanson HEIDELBERGCEMENTGroup

SUMMARY OF THE VISUAL MANAGEMENT ACTIONS FIGURE 17